Product Description

The long-sleeved fishing shirt with the unique design of HOOKIT and the logos BULLZEN and RELIX NUSANTARA as we are exclusive representatives of the two companies in Greece and Cyprus, the shirt comes with a hood and offers an ideal choice for fishing enthusiasts looking for protection from the sun and comfort during their fishing trips. With built-in UV protection and UPF 50+, this blouse offers unsurpassed protection from the sun's harmful rays while keeping your body cool throughout the day. The special fabric technology facilitates breathability, allowing air to circulate freely and helping to keep your skin cool. In addition, the fabric dries quickly, ensuring you stay comfortable and dry even if you come into contact with water. The hood offers extra protection for your head and neck from the sun, while the long sleeves protect you from overexposure. This shirt is the perfect companion for your fishing excursions, offering a combination of protection and comfort every moment of the summer. Choose it to enjoy your fishing without worrying about the sun.
